

From: The Mint Museum
Sent: Friday, September 4, 2020 11:21 AM
To:
Subject: Mark your calendar: The Mint Museum is re-opening!

Come intrigued. Leave inspired.

Mark your calendar to celebrate our reopening with a FREE weekend, Sept. 25-27

We've been busy while our doors have been shut, and have an array of stunning new exhibitions, installations and art to share, as well as safety precautions that will ensure your time back is transcendent, not stressful.

Read

Dance the night away with a celebratory Mint to Move

Join us tonight at 7:30 PM for a virtual Mint to Move dance lesson from the Black Lives Matter mural and Mint Museum Uptown.

Watch

Con A de Arté showcases Latin artists time and talent in the local arts community

Each year the Mint partners with ArtSi Charlotte to celebrate Latin American artists for their talents in visual arts, dance, literature and music in the Charlotte community. This year's signature event features six artists in a four-part virtual series beginning Tuesday, Sept. 8.

Watch

Curator's Pick

We are sharing pieces from our galleries and collections to help bring peace and inspiration while we all practice social distancing. Our curators have chosen these pieces to give you the museum experience from home. To see more #CuratorsPicks, follow us on our social media channels.

Laura Coombs Hills (American, 1859–1952). "Peonies and Velvet," 1930–1, pastel on paper. Museum Purchase: Mint Museum Auxiliary Fund. 2009.2

Peonies and Velvet. Laura Coombs Hills was an important member of Boston's artistic community in the opening decades of the 20th century. Early in her career she worked as a commercial artist, producing designs for products ranging from posters and greeting cards to needlepoint patterns, calendars and candy boxes, as well as illustrations for children's books. But Hills is most highly regarded for her portrait miniatures and for lush floral pastels like Peonies and Velvet.

Don't Miss This

- Locally sourced essentials for the fall season, including a few culture picks from the Mint Museum Store.
- Kehinde Wiley on making art during a pandemic, life at his studio in Senegal, and the state of social unrest (NY Times)
- The Mint Museum's rich cache of newly revealed holdings gleams as shutdowns force a reboot. (SouthPark magazine)

Give us Your Feedback

Let us what you're thinking, what you'd like to see more of, and how we can share more of The Mint Museum with the Charlotte community. Email us at digital@mintmuseum.org with your ideas and feedback.

North Carolina
Arts
Council
Fifty years of leadership

LEVINE CENTER
FOR THE ARTS

Culture For All.

The Mint Museum | Mint Museum UPTOWN at Levine Center for the Arts, 500 S. Tryon St, Charlotte, NC 28202

About our service provider

Sent by digital@mintmuseum.org